

Corning Painted Post Winter Guard Proudly Presents “Walking in Memphis”

Walking the streets of Memphis, Singer/Songwriter Marc Cohn sought out the music of the Gospel and the Blues and let it wash over him. That inspiration is what brought him to write “Walking in Memphis”. Join us as we touch down in the land of the Delta blues, in the middle of the pouring rain.

The Corning Painted Post Winter Guard has 12 amazing students from both the CPP Middle School and High School. The guard is under the direction of Kira Farley. Staff includes Jason Case, Lilly McLaughlin, and Joanne Van Kurin. We are beyond grateful for our chaperones, Band Boosters, and the CPP School District for the amazing support.
