

What about us?

Social media, school shootings, race riots, a global pandemic..... at some point all kids begin to ask but what about us?

The 2023 Orchard Park High School is proud to present their program "What about Us?"

Show design is by Nicholas Boucounis, with additional design by Genevieve Rainforth. Staff includes Casey Bishop and Kaela Grosslinger. The guard director is Traci Morrow. The guard would like to thank Mr. Brignone and Mr..Bean, as well as all the parents for all of their support!
