

Marcus Whitman Winterguard

Proudly Presents

Performed to the titular John Lennon song, “Imagine” evokes a world free from the trials and tribulations so often found in our own. Beginning with a sole spec of color in an otherwise muted world, watch as the Marcus Whitman Winterguard brings their show to life through color and artistry. Join us in imagining a world where all can live as one.

The Marcus Whitman Winterguard is comprised of students in grades 7-11. They are instructed by Director Sandra Herman, Assistant Director Amelia Rasmussen, and Michelle Boylan. The guard would like to thank the Marcus Whitman Band & Guard Boosters for their continued support.
